NEWBERRY WINS FROM FURMAN

Newberry Wins First Game of the Season From Furman University by a Score of 11 to 1.

With "Nig" Epting at his best, before the largest crowd of ladies that has ever witnessed a ball game in Newberry, Furman was defeated last Thursday 11 to 1. Ladies day was observed and with a large number of sponsors present the scene presented was a gay one.

Epting was the star of the evening, pitching a wonderful game, allowing but two hits, striking out 10, and walking 6. He also secured a pair of doubles, two singles and a walk, out of five times up. "Nig" was invincible and Furman was at his mercy throughout.

The entire Newberry team played a nice game and worked hard, their hitting being especially good. Renken, behind the bat, played a steady game and contributed two of the longest hits of the day, one of them hitting the top of the fence. Troutman showed up well at bat.

There were no outstanding features of the visitors' play, except that they appeared weak in the box.

The next game will be played Wednesday, April 8, at 4 o'clock with Wofford. The same prices of 25 cents and 15 cents will hold.

Respect for Another Day.

Mr. Editor: In this day when so much is being done in our schools to foster in the minds of the children, the virtues of patriotism, and of reverence for the good and great of our land, by the observance of birthdays, anniversaries, etc., would it not be well to have impressed upon their young hearts and minds a due respect for the day that saw the greatest good, and a loving reverence for the One, who having said that "greater love hath no man than this that a man lay down his life for his friends"—freely gave up His spotless sinless life, not only for his friends, but for all.

A Pleader.

Recognition.

When life's cares and toils are ended
All its burdens rolled away
Shall I enter life eternal
See the light of endless day

When I step into the lifeboat
And the boatman takes his oar,
Will my loved ones bid me welcome
When we reach the mystic shore

Will my parents know I'm coming
To that heavenly happy land
Will they feel my spirit's presence
Shall I see a beckoning hand?

Will my children come to meet me
When I climb the golden stair
Shall I feel their arms around me
Will they call me mother there

And the one who has just left me
The child nearest to my heart
Will she say we're safe in Heaven
And we never more shall part.

A. A. Freeman Dead.

We received a wire on Sunday from Mrs. A. A. Freeman, of Danville, Va., notifying us of the death of her husband, which occurred Saturday night.

A. A. Freeman was for many years overseer of carding and spinning at the Riverside mills, Danville, Va., and was very highly regarded both as a cotton manufacturer and as a man. About a year ago he was compelled to resign on account of ill health and last fall accepted a position as traveling representative for the Southern Textile Bulletin. His condition of health, however, was such that he could not keep up the work and he returned to Danville where he has been ill since that time. His funeral occurred at Danville on Monday.—Textile Bulletin, 2nd.

Mr. Freeman lived in Newberry for several years and worked at the Newberry mill. He held a good position here and had many friends who will regret to learn of his death. Mrs. Freeman is a sister of Mr. W. H. Hardemann, of the Newberry mill. Mr. Hardemann attended the funeral.

SENATORS IN REVOLT

Against the Rules—Nine, Disgruntled Over Confirmation of Daniels, Threaten Disobedience.

Washington, April 3.—Nine members of the senate, headed by Senator La Follette, openly revolted against proceedings behind closed doors tonight after an executive session in which the senate, by a vote of 36 to 27, confirmed the nomination of Winthrop M. Daniels of New Jersey to be a member of the interstate commerce commission. Senator La Follette declared on the floor that he proposed to defy the rules of the senate in future and discuss publicly legislation not affecting foreign relations, and later it was announced that Senator Brislow, Cummins, Clapp, Kenyon, Norris, Jones and Gronna (republicans), and Poindexter (progressive) would maintain the same attitude. The revolt caused a sensation and there was much speculation as to the effect it would have on future executive sessions. The general opinion was that there would be no attempt to take action against members who disregarded the rule of secrecy.

Confirmation of Commissioner Daniels closed a three-day fight marked by one of the bitterest debates heard at the capitol in years. Both sides contested determinedly. Mr. Daniels' advocates having the support of President Wilson's well known desire that his appointee and personal friend be confirmed without delay.

LINCOLN'S HAIR SOLD HIGH

Lock From Head of War President Brings $650.

New York, April 3.—A lock of President Lincoln's hair sold for $650 last night at the auction sale of Lincolniana from the effects of the late Major Wm. H. Lambert, of Philadelphia.

The lock was cut from the wounded head of President Lincoln the day following his assassination by Mrs. Schuyler Colfax, wife of the speaker of the house, specially for Mrs. Lincoln.

His Was Best.

A banker's son and a doctor's son were talking about their fathers.

"My father," said the banker's son, "is the best. Why, when anybody wants him to lend them some money he lends other people's money, when they don't know anything about it, without getting caught."

"Huh, that's nothing," responded the doctor's son. "My dad can kill a person without getting caught."

LIND WILL TAKE VACATION

President's Emissary to Visit Washington—Good Time for Rest.

Washington, April 2.—John Lind, former governor of Minnesota and for the last eight months the personal representative in Mexico for the president of the United States, will sail from Vera Cruz tomorrow for Washington aboard the presidential yacht Mayflower.

The announcement of Mr. Lind's prospective visit was made by President Wilson with the explanation that his envoy had requested a vacation and rest from his labor in a tropical climate and that as soon as that had been obtained he would return to Mexico.

The president declared that Mr. Lind's departure for the United States shouldn't be construed as in the nature of a recall or as foreshadowing any change of policy by the Washington government towards either faction in Mexico. He said that no negotiations of any character were pending between the Huerta government and the United States and that the recent conference between Senor Portillo y Rojas, Huerta's minister of foreign affairs and Mr. Lind had developed nothing tangible or important, but was merely a friendly talk.
